JOSHUA AND OUR GREAT ADVENTURE WITH GOD

God called Joshua to lead his people into the Promised Land. The people had no idea of the great adventure that they would experience. What made Joshua effective in his leadership? How do our lives mirror that great adventure with God? Mark will unpack this incredible story and point us toward some biblical principles by which we can live and lead.

Mark Eshoff has served as the Executive Minister of Fremont Presbyterian Church in Sacramento, CA for over 26 years. In addition to his commitment to Jesus Christ and to continuing to explore the richness of God's Word and his amazing grace, his priorities in life revolve around his wife, Cheryl, and their family. He has three married daughters and two grandchildren who are the new joys of his life. Leadership, administration and service are his gifts, and he is known for his strengths in connecting and relating to people, providing strategic vision, and analyzing and understanding systems and organizations. He loves the local church and has been privileged to be in a position to encourage and support churches as the Moderator of the EPC Presbytery of the Pacific. Mark graduated with a degree in Economics from UCLA where he was also involved in numerous musical groups, and then worked in financial management at a high-tech firm in Los Angeles before coming to Fremont Church. In his free time, you'll find him enjoying waterskiing, camping, backpacking, playing the trumpet and grandfathering.
