Retreat Program

In the Gospel of Matthew the teachings of Jesus point to one great objective: The Making of Disciples. From the Sermon on the Mount, to the calling and sending of the Twelve, to his use of parables, to the Great Commission, Jesus was about discipleship. It is central to experiencing the Kingdom of Heaven.

During the course of this weekend, we will study passages from the book of Matthew to glean lessons of what it means to be a follower of Him. What do these ancient texts have to say to men like us, who often find ourselves caught up in teachings and messages from the ever-changing world around us? We will be surprised by how refreshing and life-giving discipleship is and how accessible it is to all who wish to experience the Kingdom of
