Additional Notes:

In the years following the decimation of the Yahwistic prophets under the evil reign of Ahab and Jezebel, the prophetic tradition is not allowed to fail.

There remained a faithful witness to the God of Israel after the departure of Elijah...

According to both Jewish and Christian tradition, Elijah's ministry did not end with his ascension. He assumes the role of the "prophet like Moses" who will be the forerunner of the Messiah at the end of time. His mission is to preach repentance... It is no wonder that the early Christian interpreters saw in Elijah the model for John the Baptist. – T.R. Hobbs, 2 Kings, p.28

He picked up the cloak that had fallen from Elijah and went back and stood on the bank of the Jordan. Then he took the cloak that had fallen from him and struck the water with it. "Where now is the Lord, the God of Elijah?" he asked. When he struck the water, it divided to the right and to the left, and he crossed over. – 2 Kings 2:13-14

Prayers of the People & The Lord's Prayer

*Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name.
Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for Thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.*
