

Doing What to Know

(Philemon Unlocked #2)

Philemon 3-7

What we believe and know is limited by what we do.
Fuller knowledge of God comes to those who share with others in a life of obeying Him.

... and I pray that the sharing of your faith may become effective for the full knowledge of every good thing that is in us for the sake of Christ. – Philemon 6

Notes:

*I do not seek to understand in order to believe,
but I believe in order to understand.
For this too I believe, that “unless I believe, I shall not understand.”*
– St. Anselm of Canterbury, Proslogian (1077 AD)

Koinōnia is part of the truth about the body of Christ. All are bound together in a mutual bond that makes our much-prized individualism look shallow and petty.

*Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name.
Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for Thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.*
